CHARITY BALL

German-American Ball Held Last Night Was Great Success.

The German-American Charity Ball was held last night in the Academy of Music. The Academy was crowded to its utmost capacity, as the affair is always popular and is looked forward to by many every year. The music and chorals which preceded the grand march were rendered very well by the Maennerchor, Harmonie and Philadelphia Quartet Clubs. The grand march was led by Director and Mrs. George D. Porter, and was viewed by a number of Philadelphia's prominent people, including the Mayor and Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg, Dr. W. Muller, German Consul; George E. Grivelo, Austro-Hungarian Consul; Colonel M. Richards Muckle, ex-Governor Pennypacker, Matthew Southemer, Henry Lierz, Edward W. Slegman, Albert T. Amann, Adolph Storck, Willard E. Bares, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Ehrlich and John C. Oester.

The ballroom was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and azaleas, and the word "Charity" was brilliantly illuminated in electric effects.

The women's gowns were all quite elaborate. Mrs. Porter wore heavy black satin, having a draped skirt and a bodice of lace, with a girle and trimming of coral-colored satin. Mrs. Ehrlich looked very well in a gown of blue satin, with a tunic of white lace. The bodice of lace was elaborately finished with pearls and beaded trimming. Mrs. S. Townsend Zook wore a gorgeous gown of pink satin, the waist of which was blue panne velvet, trimmed with fitch fur. Miss Alice Fisher looked well in a gown of yellow pussy-willow satin, and Miss Marion Fisher's pink satin dress was made with a very full skirt and having a girle of blue satin. Miss Helen Patterson looked charming in a gown of blue satin, having a scalloped tunic, the bodice of which was made of beaded trimming. Pink roses finished the costume. Colonel and Mrs. Edward Bowman were also seen. Mrs. Bowman looked well in a gown made simply of gray satin.

The proceeds of the ball will be devoted to the destitute unemployed of the city.
